Welcome to Bournemouth!

Bournemouth is an elegant and modern town by the sea, situated on the south coast of England, only two hours from London.

It is a very popular seaside resort with 7 miles of golden beaches and beautiful award-winning gardens and parks.

Bournemouth is not only a thriving and popular holiday resort, but it is also the headquarters for several large companies, has its own University, College and lots of primary and secondary schools.

It is a multicultural town with many language schools and student clubs for people from different places around the world.

You can find many restaurants serving unique international cuisines, small cafes and local shops.

Bournemouth has its own International Centre where you can watch many shows, see world famous artists or attend exhibitions. Across the town there are hundreds of events all year round. It is a centre of music, family events and fantastic festivals.

At the same time, there are plenty of sports and leisure activities, cycling routes, golf courses, swimming and tennis centres.
